The Quarto Group UK

Aurum a narrative non-fiction list showcasing great writing and compelling storytelling with a range of titles from memoir to polemic, food, feminism, history, nature and travel writing.

Frances Lincoln was founded in 1977 and publishes books on art and culture, gardening, London, and walking and the outdoors. We also have a well-established stationery list, in particular our bestselling line of products created with the Royal Horticultural Society. We produce beautifully crafted, premium quality books that will be a source of information and pleasure for many years.

Ivy Press produces titles that will inspire you, books that will show you how to make things, books that will make your mouth water, books that will inform you, books that will expand your mind, and books that will stimulate you, however much you already know. Its bestselling non-fiction list includes titles on natural history, general reference, popular science, art, craft, design and the internationally acclaimed 30-Second series which has been translated into 30 languages.

Leaping Hare Press creates beautiful books to inspire and empower readers to translate ethical and spiritual values into practical, meaningful life choices. From planting a wildflower seedbomb to mindfully walking along a busy street, our books are guides to connecting to each other and the natural world. Penned by heart-led, expert authors, our conscious living titles embrace community spirit and explore ecological principles in a positive way – delivering that feel-good factor too.

White Lion Publishing Our books are designed to invite you in, using fresh voices and exploring new ideas that entice and inspire the reader. We focus on searching for authors with a growing platform, who speak directly to readers as experts with voices that resonate. Full of possibility, our list ranges across lifestyle, issues and activism, food & drink, travel, self-care and popular culture.

Welcome to Aurum, Quarto's narrative non-fiction list, home to great writing and compelling storytelling.

We publish a highly curated list of eight to ten new titles a year, from memoir to polemic, food, feminism, nature and travel writing. Our books win prizes. They're discussed by reading groups, recommended to friends and read on holiday.

New to the list are award-winning novelist Wyl Menmuir with his first work of non-fiction and Tom Read Wilson sharing his lifelong love of words. Kate Wickers' Shape of a Boy is a laugh-out-loud summer read and autumn heralds a new volume of bestselling wit in the Telegraph Unpublished Letters series.

Aurum's mission is to discover and nurture new writing talent, publish with passion and panache and reach the widest possible readership for our books.

Follow our latest news on Twitter: @Aurumpress.

With best wishes,

Katie Bond

THE DRAW OF THE SEA

Wyl Menmuir

A beautiful exploration of the enduring appeal of the sea, told around the lives of those making a living on the Cornish coast.

Winner of the Roger Deakin Prize, Wyl Menmuir's The Draw of the Sea looks at the fishermen, surfers, swimmers, beachcombers, conservationists, sailors and boatbuilders who make their living on the Cornish coast. In this beautifully-written meditation on what it is that draws us to the water's edge, author Wyl Menmuir also writes movingly about his own connection to the sea, with heartfelt personal anecdotes about what it has come to mean in his and his family's lives.

Praise for The Many by Wyl Menmuir:

"He deserves 10 out of 10 when it comes to the creation of atmosphere, and Menmuir can certainly write."

The Independent

WYL MENMUIR is an award-winning author based in Cornwall. His 2016 debut novel, The Many, was longlisted for the Man-Booker Award and his second novel, Fox Fires, was published in 2021. Wyl has written for BBC Radio 4's Open Book, the Guardian and the Observer, and he is a regular contributor to the journal Elementum. He is co-creator of the Cornish writing centre, The Writers' Block and lectures in creative writing at Falmouth University.

HERE WE GO AGAIN...

UNPUBLISHED LETTERS TO THE DAILY TELEGRAPH 14

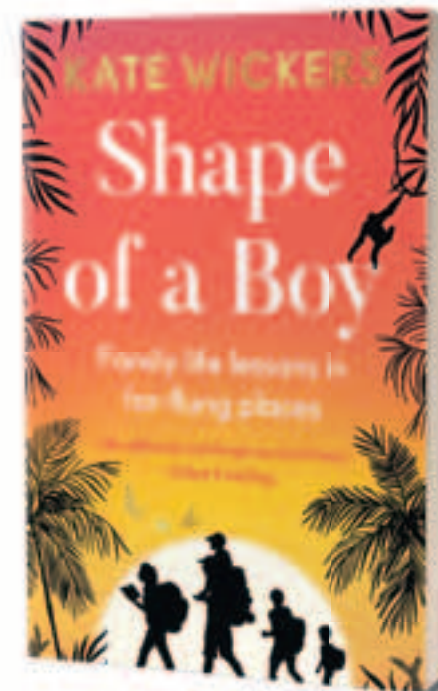

Kate Moore

The annual humour bestseller returns for its 14th collection.

In another surreal, unprecedented year, letter writers to The Daily Telegraph have once again provided their refreshing and witty take on events. Readers of the Telegraph Letters Page will be fondly aware of the eclectic combination of learned wisdom, wistful nostalgia and robust good sense of humour that characterise its correspondence – and this volume contains yet more pearls of insight.

- Readers respond with a humorous and insightful selection of letters to the ongoing and tumultuous state of the world in 2022.
- The Daily Telegraph Unpublished Letters has sold over 600,000 copies in 14 years and is still in rude health.

KATE MOORE started writing obituaries for the Daily Telegraph in 2013 and joined the Letters desk as an assistant editor the following year. Kate edited Wake Me Up When It's All Over..., the 2020 collection of unpublished letters.

SHAPE OF A BOY

FAMILY LIFE LESSONS IN FAR FLUNG PLACES

Kate Wickers

Travel journalist and mother of three Kate Wickers takes her children with her across the globe, capturing the life lessons learnt.

'Have kids, will travel' is Kate's mantra, as she travels from the jungles of southeast Asia to Havana's waterfront and Egypt's blazing heat. Life lessons learnt include overcoming disappointment in Thailand to saying sorry in Japan, discovering perseverance in Borneo and learning about conservation in Malaysia. A must-read for every wannabe traveller grounded by lockdown and for every parent who has dreaded travelling with a baby.

"Life-affirming and laugh-out-loud funny."
Helen Fielding, author of Bridget Jones's Diary

KATE WICKERS is a veteran travel journalist who writes for national newspapers and magazines in the UK, US and Australia.

F FRANCES
F LINCOLN

This Autumn we have a brilliant selection of outstanding titles. One of our absolute highlights is Colours of London by Peter Ackroyd, the leading writer on London and its history. This extraordinary book looks at how its distinctive array of colours have defined the look of the city in history. Our other lead title is the BBC Puzzle Book, a family friendly, fun look at the history, stars and programmes of the BBC which celebrates its centenary this year.

Elsewhere on the list, we continue with two more gardening books created in partnership with Bloom magazine. What Gardeners Grow is a wonderful resource that highlights the favourite plants that 250 notable gardeners use themselves. We also have a strong array of books on art and culture – on tattoos, 80s style, iconic paintings, the colours of art and famous cemeteries, as well as a treasury of macabre art. Two other books on London round out the season, with a book on fabulous London interiors and a personal tour of London in the company of illustrator and artist, Vic Lee.

COLOURS OF LONDON

Peter Ackroyd

Peter Ackroyd explores how London's myriad hues have come to shape its history and identity.

Think of the colours of London and you might imagine the reds of open-top buses or the greens of royal parks. Colours are everywhere, and each one holds links to the city's past. This book traces the history of London via the colours that define its identity, from those that have inspired artists to the ones used by designers, social reformers and football teams.

- Celebrated writer Peter Ackroyd turns his gaze to the colours of London in a unique and lively book.
- A visually striking package, with colourised photographs from Dynamichrome.
- The symbolism of colour is a popular topic, and London is particularly associated with specific hues.

PETER ACKROYD's novel Hawksmoor won the Whitbread and the Guardian Fiction Prize and Chatterton was shortlisted for the Booker Prize. London: The Biography won the South Bank Show Annual Award for Literature.

VIC LEE'S LONDON

TRUE TALES AND DUBIOUS STORIES

Vic Lee

A lively illustrated tour of London in the company of Vic Lee – artist, storyteller and self-confessed “ragamuffin from south-east London”.

Based on Vic Lee's series of prints of London, this book covers a variety of London's areas and streets, from Walthamstow Village to Lordship Lane and Broadway market to Portobello Road. Interwoven around the places are stories and anecdotes that Vic has picked up during his researches and conversations, plus some that may or may not be true...

Created in Vic Lee's inimitable, intricate illustration style, this is a work of art for lovers of London life and its special places.

- A unique, beautiful guide to London and its life by artist Vic Lee.
- Filled with stories and anecdotes about London life.
- A perfect gift for Londoners, London lovers and tourists looking for an unconventional guide to the city.

VIC LEE is an artist, illustrator, storyteller, wordsmith and mapmaker. Vic's hand-illustrated London prints featuring buildings and typography are hugely popular. ## GREAT HOUSES OF LONDON

James Stourton

Opens the door to some of the greatest and grandest houses in London.

London's great houses represent one of the marvels of English architecture, yet they are almost entirely unknown. They are often disguised behind sober façades, but their many architectural wonders include Robert Adam's 20 St James's Square and William Burges's Tower House. Several – including Bridgewater House's Raphaels and Titians – have held great art collections. And there are extraordinary stories within the houses' walls, from politics to history.

- Stunning photographs by world-famous photographer Fritz von der Schulenburg.
- Extraordinary behind-the-scenes access and photography paints an intimate picture of these grand homes.

JAMES STOURTON is the author of Kenneth Clark: Life, Art and Civilisation and British Embassies: Their Diplomatic and Architectural History. He is a senior fellow of the Institute of Historical Research and was on the Panel of the Heritage Memorial Fund and the Acceptance in Lieu Panel for ten years.

In this book, find clothes that consciously questioned boundaries, challenged the status quo, and made shockwaves we are still feeling today.

80s SOUND AND VISION

Nilgin Yusuf. Photography by Sheila Rock

Captures the raw energy, creativity and flamboyance of the 1980s through its fashion and music.

With images by renowned photographer Sheila Rock, this personal journey offers a visual account including many rare images from the photographer's archive, alongside those originally featured in seminal publications such as The Face, Rolling Stone and Vogue. This lavish compendium is a who's who of the artists, designers, stylists, hairdressers, models and performers, who made the 1980s their own. Alongside many notable stars (David Bowie, Brian Ferry, Naomi Campbell, Judy Blame, Leigh Bowery) are documented the equally relevant style gangs and subcultures who lived by their own rules (New Romantics, Goths, Mods and Metal Heads) and the "it" hang-outs and clubs (Billy's, Blitz, Le Beat Route) where a new sensibility was created and paraded.

NILGIN YUSUF has been a fashion and style commentator for over thirty years at British Elle and the Daily Telegraph and fashion editor at The Sunday Times. SHEILA ROCK's introduction to rock and roll came via her ex-husband, photographer Mick Rock, whom she joined when he covered David Bowie's first tour. Her work has appeared in Vogue, Time, Elle, Glamour, Rolling Stone and The Sunday Times.

MAKING A MASTERPIECE

THE STORIES BEHIND ICONIC ARTWORKS

Debra N. Mancoff

Discover the stories of how, why and what makes a masterpiece.

What makes a work of art a masterpiece? Starting with Botticelli's The Birth of Venus, we travel through time and a range of styles and stories – including theft, scandal, artistic reputation, politics and power – to Warhol's Campbell's Soup Cans, challenging the idea of what a masterpiece can be, and arriving in the 21st century with Amy Sherald's portrait of Michelle Obama. The journey from the easel to popular acclaim can be as compelling as the masterpiece itself.

STARRY NIGHT

VAN GOGH AT THE ASYLUM

Martin Bailey

An essential account of Van Gogh's time at the asylum in Saint-Remy, during which he created some of his most iconic work.

A fully illustrated account of Van Gogh's time at the asylum in Saint-Remy from one of the UK's leading specialists on the artist. Despite the challenges of ill health and asylum life, Van Gogh continued to produce a series of masterpieces – cypresses, wheatfields, olive groves and sunsets. He wrote little about the asylum in letters to his brother Theo; Starry Night aims to give an impression of daily life behind the walls of Saint-Paul-de-Mausole, with newly discovered material.

THE WORLDS OF J.R.R. TOLKIEN

John Garth

An expertly-written investigation of the places that shaped the work of one of the world's best loved authors.

John Garth takes us to the places that inspired J.R.R. Tolkien to create his fictional locations – particularly his beloved West Midlands and Oxford, but also overseas. Sources are located for Hobbiton, the elven valley of Rivendell, the Glittering Caves of Helm's Deep, and many other key spots in Middle-earth, plus its mountain scenery, forests, rivers, lakes and shorelands. Organised by theme, this is an illustrated journey into the life and imagination of an iconic author.

WHITE
LION

Our White Lion Publishing autumn programme is full to the brim with delights, all continuing our simple mission: to enhance, enrich and illuminate.

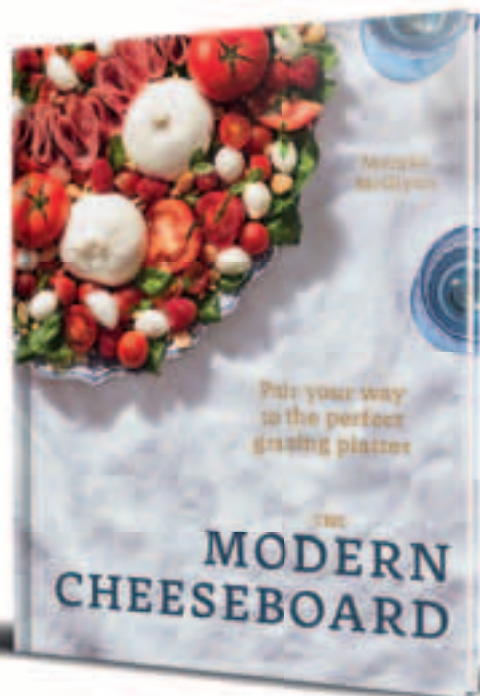

New treats in store include a fascinating exploration of the life and work of Christopher Nolan as part of our Iconic Filmmakers series, a brilliant addition to our instructional photography range with Jo Bradford's Smart Photos, taking smartphone photography to the next level and Well Documented, the first book to analyse in detail the 100 must-see documentaries that prove the truth is more fascinating than fiction.

We are also delighted to be launching a new series with Travis Elborough, starting with The Writer's Journey, where we'll be guiding you through the life-changing literary journeys taken by the greats. And continuing our humorous pet publishing with a guide to demystifying the mind of human's best friend in Dog Pawsonality, a series of questions and tests to crack your canine's code.

There is something for everyone this season, and we're delighted to be sharing these books with you as we continue to evolve and grow our list.

ICONIC FILMMAKERS: CHRISTOPHER NOLAN

THE ICONIC FILMMAKER AND HIS WORK

Ian Nathan

An engaging and in-depth examination of the work of Christopher Nolan, one of the most revered directors working in modern cinema.

This comprehensive and in-depth study delves into the life and works of one of modern film's most celebrated, and intriguing auteurs. Visually, Nolan offers a steely science-fiction noir. His films twist and turn, provoking as many questions as they answer. Illustrated throughout, this book offers a fascinating insight into the mind of this most brilliant of directors.

- Christopher Nolan's films have grossed more than US$5 billion worldwide, and have garnered 11 Academy Awards from 36 nominations.
- A brilliant addition to our highly successful Iconic Filmmakers series, showcasing the breadth of Nolan's career including his new film, Oppenheimer, due for release in 2023.
- Presented in a slipcase with 8-page gatefold section, with photographs of the director at work on set, as well as iconic stills and examples of his influences.

DO THE WORK... AND BE THE CHANGE

UNLEARN YOUR BIASES. RECLAIM YOUR PERSONAL POWER. RE-EDUCATE YOURSELF.

Roxane Gay. Illustrated by Aurelia Durrand

Transform your inner and outer worlds with the guided influence of icon Roxane Gay in this thought-provoking interactive guided journal to exploring power.

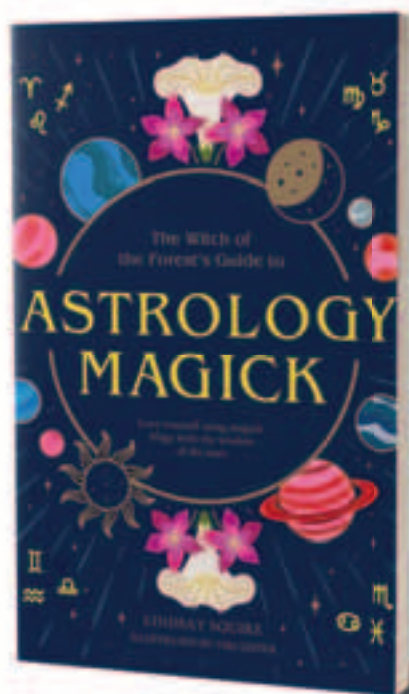

The system isn't broken – it was built this way. Educator, writer, author and activist Roxane Gay enables readers to reflect on their understanding of the different systems of power that surround them every day and to understand how these systems reproduce biases and prejudice in ourselves. Dr. Gay shows us how we can empower ourselves and others, asking thought-provoking questions which invite us to mindfully engage with, question and unlearn our own biases and beliefs.

- Dr. Roxane Gay is an iconic New York Times best-selling writer and leading, active voice for issue-based societal change.
- Do the Work responds to a commercial appetite for re-education and social empowerment.
- The definitive workbook for the privilege-aware and prejudice-conscious.

ROXANE GAY is a contributing opinion writer for the New York Times. She is the author of the New York Times best-selling Bad Feminist, Difficult Women and Hunger. She co-presents a podcast, The Roxane Gay Agenda. AURELIA DURRAND is a French illustrator based in Paris. ## PORSCHE 75TH ANNIVERSARY EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED

Randy Leffingwell

Celebrate the 75th anniversary of Germany's premier automaker.

Porsche's first car, the 356, entered the world in 1948, kicking off what would become a sports car dynasty. In the intervening 75 years, Porsche became a key measure by which all other performance cars are measured. But Porsche has also become much more than a sports car manufacturer.

Porsche 75th Anniversary celebrates the company's full history as penned by top Porsche historian

Randy Leffingwell, ably assisted by the Porsche Museum and Archive. In 2023, Porsche celebrates 75 years of high-performance automotive excellence.

- Porsche sold 272,000 vehicles in 2020 to an affluent, engaged customer base.
- Porsche are revered by enthusiasts and recognised by even the most casual car fan.

RANDY LEFFINGWELL wrote his first book, American Muscle, in 1989. He is considered one of the top Corvette historians, and enjoys a close working relationship with Chevrolet as well numerous other manufacturers.

THE ROAD TO GONDWANA

IN SEARCH OF THE LOST SUPERCONTINENT

Bill Morris

The first book of its kind will help you understand what it would actually be like to experience life on the semi-mythical supercontinent.

The Road to Gondwana takes the reader on a journey in search of the lost southern supercontinent. It traces the steps science took to find Gondwana, and the journey Gondwana itself took through 500 million years of Earth history. Our tour guide on this journey is Glossopteris, an extinct tree that dominated the supercontinent for 50 million years, before vanishing in the most devastating event to strike life on this planet, the Permian mass extinction.

GODDESSES IN YOU

DISCOVERING THE MYTHS AND ARCHETYPES
THAT ARE YOUR REALITY

Christine Lister

Goddesses In You* introduces twelve goddess archetypes that offer today's women the key to who they truly are.

From Greta Thunberg to Jacqueline Kennedy, influential women of today can be understood by looking at the 12 ancient goddess archetypes. Together, they span the panorama of features, the fullness of femininity, that exists in human imagination and the collective unconscious. Using an intuitive blend of mythology, psychology, feminism and spirituality as a psychic lens, Goddesses In You reveals how you can better connect with these powerful inner forces that shape our lives.

OLIVER KITTEN'S DIARY

THE JOURNALS OF A MISCHIEVOUS CAT'S
FIRST YEAR

Gareth St John Thomas

Cat lovers will enjoy Oliver's precocious, naughty antics, learn something about kitten care and appreciate his perceptions of the human condition.

Oliver Kitten was born in a fire truck and ends up living with a three-generation multicultural human family in a high-rise apartment. Here he keeps a diary of his own escapades and the things he sees and hears his family get up to. Cute, funny, and a little naughty, Oliver can sometimes be downright wicked in his precocious observations of the things all the humans do in his house.
